Resident Notices, Displays & Events

Bulletin boards

- a. Resident community bulletin boards and activity displays are under and subject to the direction and control of Management. Items for the bulletin boards and the displays must be approved, displayed and organized on a weekly basis as determined by Management.
- b. Bulletin boards are for the use of Residents and Resident sponsored activities only. No notices for Nonresident events or advertisements for services providing personal financial gain to the advertiser will be displayed anywhere on District property.
- c. Resident community bulletin boards are located on the exterior of the clubhouse.
- d. No political advertising including those materials relating to District or HOA election campaigns may be placed on bulletin boards. The exception to this would information from the District regarding an upcoming election.

Displays/Easels/Signs/Posters

- a. Displays for special charitable events organized by a District or HOA sanctioned group, may be placed in the administrative lobby annually, for a period not to exceed 30 days, with the written approval of Management.
- ~~b.~~ No other unattended displays, easels, signs, collection boxes or posters will be allowed anywhere in the clubhouse or on District property.

Awards & Recognitions

- a. The Board has designated the administrative lobby for the display of Tree of Life, Board plaques and sports awards with the exception of awards presented to the Billiards team which may be displayed in the Billiards room.
- b. The Board has designated Activity Room B for displays of photos, artwork or other memorabilia requested by a sanctioned resident organization. Organizations are limited to one item for display.
- c. All displays are subject to the final approval of Management. Management will oversee and organize the displays and reserves the right to remove displays when in its judgment they are no longer timely or appropriate.

Events

- a. The Board has designated the lobby alcove for ticket sales for Resident sponsored events. Signs may be displayed near the sales desk, but only during scheduled ticket sales times. Ticket sales may also be conducted at the Ballroom door on the day of the event. Management is responsible for scheduling these locations.
- b. On the day of the approved event, directional signs may be allowed upon approval of their location and format by the General Manager. No other displays for Resident sponsored events will be allowed on the District property.

Solicitations and Raffles

- a. The Board has designated the lobby alcove for resident solicitations and/or raffle ticket sales. Signs may be displayed near the desk, but only while the desk is manned.
